Woman Masquerading in this Attire.

MAY HAVE BEEN DRUGGED

County Officers at Work on the Case Young Girl Found at 2 A. M. Yesterday at Reservoir in Company With Two Men.

Possibilities of further developments of an interesting sort hang about the case of Lesite Thompson, the young and comely, but wayward girl, who, in company with two men, was found at the Reservoir in the early hours of yesterday morning masquerading in solders' attire. Both men, and the girl as well, are confined in the county jail in default of a sum sufficient to meet the fines imposed upon two of them and the security demanded of the third. The girl was examined yesterday by Dr. Lorrimer James, coroner of Henrico, and it was easily apparent that she had been drinking heavily. The important result of the examination, however, was the arousing of a suspicion that she had been drugged. Dr. James is positive that she had been given or had taken an opinite of some sort. The Henrico officers are now investigating this point and may succeed before very long in clearing up some things.

IN SOLDIER'S CLOTHES, IN SOLDIER'S CLOTTIES.

According to report, the young woman is about nincteen years of age, and attractive, the daughter of worthy parents, who live near the foot of First Street. Her family wished her to become a trained nurse, but she fell into wild and wayward habits, with the result, it is said, that she was sent to the House of the Good Shepherd in Baltimore for safe keep-From this place she escaped and aged to make her way back to Rich-

Good Snepherd in Battimore for safe keeping. From this, place she escaped and managed to make her way back to Richmond.

Early in the morning yesterday—about 2 o'clock, perhaps—Policeman Kelly, stationed at the Reservoir, discovered two shadowy figures in the park near the old pavilion, just off the street along which the cars run. He investigated, with a result that he placed the two persons under arrest along with a third, who was loitering near. One of them was the young woman—Leslie Thompson. She was arrayed in a full suit of the Virginia militia and was evidently in a pitful condition. The man with her in the park was H. R. Chester, a conductor of the Passenger and Power Company. The third man placed under arrest was W. J. Faudrey. Under his arm was a bundle done up loosely in paper. In the bundle were the clothes of the unfortunate young woman.

Yesterday morning all three were brought before 'Squire James T. Lewis in the Marishrate's Court of Henrico. The girl was still in her brave uniform, but was made to distorbe and don more suitable apparel. She went bitterly at times. Counsel for her would not allow her to appear on the stand in answer to the charge of being drunk and disorderly.

The two men made statements to tile court. Chester said he was apparently intoxicated when he saw her about 2 A. M. and was wandering about abulesly in her soldier clothes, and that he went after her to see that she kept out of harm's way. It was while he was thus looking after her that they were arrested. Faudrey said the girl asked him to hold a bundle, which he did. The bundle got him arrested.

'Equire Lewis saw nothing in the testimony that would relieve the accused of the charges brought against them. He flight the fire nor the security could be produced and all three prisoners went to juil, where they are at present.
